Vacation Bible School Scheduled for June 15-17

Chapin, SC – St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church will hold its annual Vacation Bible School this summer from Tuesday, June 15 through Thursday, June 17, from 5:30 – 8:30 pm.

This year's theme is Dare to Be Different and is based on the Madeline L'Enbert book A Wrinkle in Time. Each evening includes a light dinner, story time, crafts and games. Children age two to 10 are welcome to participate.

Children are encouraged to bring a non-perishable food item each night as a love offering for needy members of the community. All food items and donations will be presented to We Care Center, a local food pantry that benefits residents in the Chapin community.

Vacation Bible School is open to the entire Chapin community and families can register by calling the church at (803) 345-1550. St. Francis is located at 735 Old Lexington Highway in Chapin.
