St Francis to Hold Celtic Quiet Day on October 29

Chapin, SC –St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church will hold a Celtic Quiet Day on Saturday, October 29 from 9:00 am until 4:00 pm. The church is located at 735 Old Lexington Highway in Chapin.

Celtic spirituality features a love and respect for nature, art and poetry, a mandate for hospitality, and encouragement for one to have a soul friend to help in spiritual direction. Janet Atkins will lead the Day of Quiet as we further explore the practices of Celtic spiritual life. Atkins is a certified spiritual director and retreat leader as well as a writer and English teacher from Greenville, SC.

The Lay Parish Chaplains and Spiritual Growth and Discipleship ministries of St. Francis of Assisi are hosting this day-long session. Lunch and light refreshments will be provided and a $5 love offering is suggested. Space is limited so please call the church at 803-345-1550 to reserve a spot.

This event is open to the entire Christian community of Chapin.
